Concordia University, Nebraska: Thom Leadership Education Center (Seward Campus)

Collaborative Keynote

WHERE ARE K-12 SCHOOLS GOING WITH TECHNOLOGY INTEGRATION?

As K-12 schools across Nebraska are aiming to integrate technology for all students (1 device: 1 student) we in Teacher Education face two challenges. The first is how to prepare for teaching this tech savvy generation. The second is to consider how to best prepare our students to effectively teach in these technology-rich schools and learn to adapt to the constantly changing technologies. Our collaborative keynote speakers will inform us of best practices to enhance our ability to better serve our students and schools across Nebraska and beyond.

"WHERE IS TECHNOLOGY ACROSS THE STATE AND WHERE ARE WE GOING?"
Kristina Peters, eLearning Specialist & School Library Liason, Nebraska Department of Education

"WHERE DO TECHNOLOGY AND NEW LITERACIES FIT INTO THE STANDARDS?"
Tricia Parker, Language Arts Director, Nebraska Department of Education

"A VISION FOR SCHOOL-WIDE INTEGRATION"
Craig Badura, pK-12 Tech Integration Specialist, Aurora Public Schools
